Annual Meeting Fourth Wednesday in January

24081

Preface

The Annual Meeting of the Ohio Poland-China Record Company, held at Dayton, Ohio, on January 24, 1906, resulted in changing the name of that Company and combining it with the Central Poland-China Record Association, whose business had been conducted at Indianapolis, Indiana. The name was changed to National Poland-China Record Company. The capital stock was increased from four thousand dollars to ten thousand dollars, divided into one thousand shares of ten dollars each. A Board of Directors was elected, which decided to continue the numbering of volume and animals beginning where the Ohio Poland-China Record Company ended. As the last volume of the Central Poland-China Record Association is number twenty-six, and the last volume of the Ohio Poland-China Record Company is twenty-seven, so the first volume of the two combined is number twenty-eight.
